

CLARK, H.

Hector Edward Skelton Clark, son of Marion (née Willis) and Edward Clark, was born at Sorrento in 1900. His older brother Boswell Clark, born at Sorrento in 1896, is also included on the St Jude's Honour Roll.

Hector Clark does not appear on the AIF database because he did not embark for overseas service. He had served two years in Senior Cadets at Carlton when the family were living at 90 Canning Street, Carlton. Hector was 18 years three months when he enlisted in October 1918. He was still in the Training Depot when the war ended and he was demobilised.

Hector's name also appears on the World War I Honour Board at Lee Street State School No 1252, North Carlton.
